Inspection

The first inspection takes place, depending on available appointments, within 5 working days from when the termination being processed by Kalmarhem. Your inspection time will be stated in the confirmation you will receive by e-mail. You are expected to attend the inspection and if the time does not suit you, contact Kalmarhem immediately by phone to reschedule.

The apartment does not need to be emptied and cleaned before the first inspection. At the first inspection, an appointment for a final inspection will be booked.

If you fail to attend to any of the inspections, you will be charged 500 SEK for each booked time.
